IF YOU LOVE
VINTAGE...

High Tea!

If you announced you were serving tea for your hen five years ago, your friends might have politely declined. How times have changed! Now, tea parties are in - dress up, drink tea from vintage china, eat finger sandwiches, and have an old-fashioned girly afternoon. You can hire Tea Party - a bright pink tea shop based in North London (teaparty.uk.com), or create your own vintage tea salon at home.
